THE 1952 HI-JACKET

Published by the Students of

OSBOURN HIGH SCHOOL

Manassas, Virginia

FOREWORD

There are, indeed, as someone has said, "Times that try men's souls." Thus at a time when able leadership, clear thinking, and great strength of character are needed to carry us through, we turn our thoughts to one who was but recently among us and who possessed these "needed" characteristics to a remarkable degree--

Miss Eugenia Hillary Osbourn.

WE DEDICATE

MISS EUGENIA HILLARY
OSBOURN
1867-1951
Educator, Administrator
Civic Leader

There is one simple, beautiful word that comes immediately to mind as we regard, with cheerful recall, the many memories we have of Miss Eugenia Osbourn. That simple word is Christina. We remember her as a leader of--a monument to--a great example of--the educational program, both public and private, of Prince William County. We recall her service as principal of our school.

Her name shall always be with us--for it is she after who our school is named--a tribute to one whom we remember as "Miss Eugenia."

WE WELCOME

MR. J. M. GARBER
Superintendent of the Prince William County Public Schools. B.S.-Bridgewater College, M.A.-University of North Carolina.

This year he is new to us; however, we already think of him as an old friend.

MR. REAMS E. BENNETT
Teacher of Industrial Arts.

We always think of him as "Pop"--an appellation born of real friendship.

WE HONOR

MR. RAYMOND R. FISHPAW
Teacher of Agriculture.

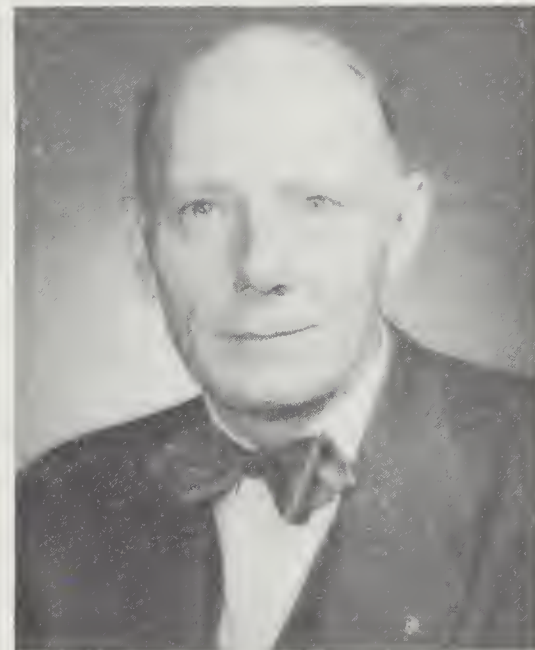

With no disrespect, indeed, with affection, we refer to him as "Raymond."

ADMINISTRATION

MR. DANIEL M. KELSO
Principal. A.B. -Westminster (Pa.), M.A. - University of Virginia.

He is known as "Dangerous Dan" to some, "Boss" to many, but "Friend" to all.

MISS CARRIE B. LANFORD
Assistant Principal, Director of Guidance.
A.B. -College of William and Mary, M.
Ed. -University of Virginia.

We refer to her affectionately as "Carrie B." --not within hearing, of course.

MRS. MARGARET B. GUY
Secretary.

If she were a man, we would say--"one swell Guy."

THE SENIOR CLASS

Graduation is nearly upon us and the time has come when we nostalgically look back upon our past years at Osbourn. We cherish each and ever association with our companions and teachers. We remember the good times and those that were not so good.

At the beginning of our Freshman year, we were told by many whose high school days were long past, that the years to follow would be among the happiest years of our lives. So with the great enthusiasm displayed everywhere by Freshmen, we began our high school careers.

Sophomores never do anything. They are such dull individuals, or so we were told by the mighty Seniors and by a few members of the faculty. We were reminded of the origin of the word which is translated from the Greek as "wise fool."

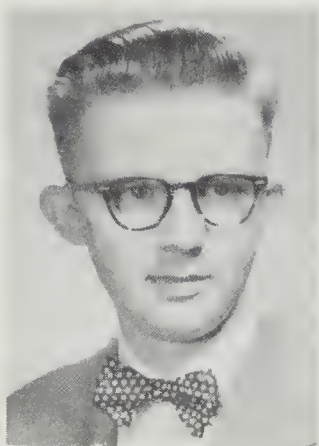

As Juniors, we experienced the great lift that comes with the realization that there remains one and only one more year till graduation. We ordered our school rings and with great enthusiasm prepared for the Junior-Senior Prom, which as always, was a tremendous success.

At last, we were Seniors and the dizzy whirl of activities in the last year of school began. Dances, dates, school rings, graduation pictures, the arrival of the annual, ordering caps and gowns--these and a multitude of other things filled our leisure moments--some little part of which--we think--was devoted to study. Then that serious and solemn hour was upon us--we attended our Baccalaureate service. A few days passed and electric with anticipation, we went forward to receive our diplomas and hear the pronouncement "graduates of Osbourn High School."

A MOVIE IS MADE AT OSBOURN

See page 60 for a full page picture of the classroom with our students dressed in clothes typical of the 1920's. They are laughing at the deaf boy.

Imagine it! Part of a movie was actually filmed at Osbourn. The film, produced by the National Education Association, is designed to present modern methods of teaching contrasted with older and often less progressive procedures as a method of presenting the profession to the public and recruiting new teachers. The scene shown above (1920's) concerns a boy, Robert Tully, who is deaf (the teacher and his classmates are unaware of his difficulty) and is considered to be stupid. All laugh at his failure to answer correctly his teacher's questions. All, that is, except Lou Galleher who has sympathy for him. His deafness is discovered when he is nearly hit by a car because of his failure to hear its horn. (One of Edgar Rhor's antique automobiles is used.) Lou, who understood his trouble, grows up and becomes a fine teacher. One sees that the modern teacher is trained to recognize such problems.

RAT WEEK

LEFT TO RIGHT, SEATED: Sandra Cook, King Gail Tompson, Queen Bill Harris, and Larry Davis.
STANDING: Fredonia Hereford and Billy Butler.

In observance of Rat Week, the freshman class was welcomed into the routine of Osbourn High School. In appreciation of their good sportsmanship, a party was given for the class and a king and queen were crowned.

During Rat Week, the "rats" were forced to dress in a most peculiar way. The boys dressed like girls and the girls dressed like boys. The girls wore their hair in pigtails with clothespins on them and the boys wore green bow ties. At the close of the week an assembly was held to punish the "rats" who were "bad" during the week.
